PTA Elects New Officers At Wakefield

ARLINGTON — The Wakefield High School Parent-Teacher Association has elected officers for the next school year.

Harry Wirin, 412 S. Garfield St., is the new president. Wirin, who is director of the budget division, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, served as parliamentarian this year. He has been active in PTA affairs for a number of years and is past president of both Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson PTA. He is also vice chairman of the Arlington District Boy Scouts.

Mrs. John C. Rowsey was re-elected first vice president and Dr. Harold Wolson, principal of Wakefield, was re-elected second vice president.

Mrs. Richard F. McCue, who has been insurance chairman this year, will be the new secretary. John A. Rosado will serve a second term as treasurer.

Other new officers are: Mrs. E. Everett Ashley, historian and Robert E. Furculow, parliamentarian.
